Please note: this artwork is being generated to serve as a proof for final approval before manufacturing printing plates. General Graphics, as a courtesy to our customers, agrees to defer art charges until printing plates are ordered, or 45 days after submitting art for approval. If after 45 days the printing plates have not been ordered, you will be billed for art charges only. If anytime after you have been invoiced you release the artwork to manufacture printing plates, General Graphics agrees not to bill you for art again unless additional revisions are requested. Please direct any questions concerning art charges and printing plates to our customer service department or to our sales representative in your area. Thank you, and as always, we appreciate the opportunity to be your printing plate supplier
